DOYLE ANNOUNCES COOPERATIVE VEHICLE AUCTION

Monroe County Executive Jack Doyle today announced that the County's Surplus Vehicle and Equipment Auction will be held TOMORROW, Saturday, October 7, 2000. Through the cooperative efforts of 50 municipalities and 20 local businesses, the County will auction heavy equipment, tools, cars and trucks beginning at 9:00 a.m. at the Gates-Chili Ogden Facility (GCO), 145 Paul Road, off Scottsville Road.

"This cooperative effort between the county and local municipalities is a tangible example of how government can work together to share expenses and reduce costs for the taxpayers," said Doyle. "Our surplus vehicle and equipment auction grows every year and underscores Monroe County's commitment to partnerships and inter-governmental cooperation."

Full settlement for equipment and vehicles is required the day of the event. All items purchased must be removed from the auction site by Wednesday, October 11 at 3:00 p.m.

Auction sales Manager, Cindy Wolcott, can be reached on site with questions regarding the equipment at 738-3759.
